

My experience with Compassion In Action - USA was awesome. My advocate assisted me with getting my Social Security Disability benefits. I was too ill to do it by myself. She went with me to speak to my doctor and get the documentation we needed to prove the seriousness of my disability. Without Compassion In Action I would not have the income and medical care I need to care for myself and my wife.

Gabe